Chairman Stacy called for a return to the following items No. 33383 & No. 33384-#R0070321, that was tabled until the representatives had time to arrive to make their presentations: Alvin Butler Curren presented information that this is a safe house ministry destroyed by fire and is being rebuilt. Before completion, the Assessor's office placed it back on the tax rolls. He said that it is not open or active; there was a property exempt status before its removal in 2013; there is still no exempt status. David Tinsley said that part of the problem was the mailing address. His office had no record of an address other than a general delivery address. Apparently, they did not receive their mail. Mr. Curren said that he has pictures to prove that it was not completed.

David Tinsley moved, seconded by Waldo Blanton, to accept as exempt on the following items:
